Biographic Sketch

Bernique Longley (nee Wilderson), painter and sculptress, was born in Molina, Illinois on September 27, 1923, but was raised by her parents Ellie and Effie Wilderson, in Chicago. While still a young girl, she attended scholarship classes for four years at the Art Institute of Chicago, and continued there for four additional years, being graduated with a Bryan Lathrop Foreign Travel Scholarship. She also studied at the Institute de Allende in San Miguel de Allende, Mexico.

In 1975 she attended the Santa Fe School of Arts and Crafts to improve her skills in sculpture and bronze casting.

During her life, she traveled extensively throughout Mexico, Central America, Africa, Europe, and the United States, drawing her inspiration from the lands and people. She became extraordinarily prolific as shown by the number of her exhibitions - over 57 in number - and reflected by the vast number of 35mm color slides of her works found in this collection.

She was married three times, the first to William de Mars Longley on May 6, 1946. The marriage ended in divorce on July 11, 1957. A child was born of that marriage on January 7, 1947, and was raised under the name Pooka, later married under the name Pooka Glidden. (She almost never used her given name, Maria.)

On May 9, 1959, Bernique was married a second time to John L. Wallace, but that marriage also ended in divorce. A third marriage, this time to James A. Orr, was no more successful, ending in divorce on May 27, 1986.

She died of lung cancer at the age of 75 years on March 25, 1999 at St. Vincent's Hospital in Santa Fe, NM.

Additional material is to be found in the curriculum vitae prefixed to this digest and in the many biographic sketches in various catalogs prepared by galleries in connection with her exhibitions, including the chronology also prefixed to this digest. Still more material is to be found in the Artists Biographic Files of the New Mexico Museum of Art Library in Santa Fe.

The individuals mentioned in this sketch are hereinafter identified as follows.

BL. Bernique Longley.
PLG. Pooka L. Glidden.
WL. William D. Longley.
JLW. John Lewis Wallace.
JAO. James A. Orr.

35 MM SLIDES

A great many of the cartons donated to the Library's archive contain 35 mm. color slides. Indeed, they constitute a major portion of the entire collection. These slides were found in a variety of containers. Thus, some in their original yellow Kodak boxes; others in special metal trays; still others in so-called "Recordex books" with graduated-size pages; some in glassine sheets; and some in plain brown envelopes. But the greatest number of slides - running into the thousands- were found in slotted carousels ready for projecting on screens. These carousels have been kept intact in placing them in these archives.

A. Slides in developers boxes, Kodak and others.

Box 154 1. 35 boxes. Most have identifying legends.
Box 155 2. 42 boxes. Most have identifying legends.
Box 156 3. 44 boxes. Most have identifying legends.

B. Slides in Recordex books.

[These are books with graduated-size pages slotted to hold slides.]

Box 157 4. (a) Titled "El Prado," 35mm. slides in small envelopes, each with the title of the contents of the envelope.
(b) Titled "Bert Huff" [Same contents.] Also contains three sheets: two list 12 works with titles, sizes, and prices, and heading " delivered to Bert Huff February 1993"; third sheet lists four works returned.
C. Slides in Carousels

[There are 61 Kodak boxes, each containing a slotted carousel filled with over 100 color 35 mm. slides ready for projecting on a screen. 23 of the boxes are canary-colored; 38 are yellow and black boxes. Most have inscriptions explaining the contents of the boxes. A few do not. Some depict BL’s works; others are travel photos. The boxes have been marked with letters in alphabetical order. Their arrangement has no special significance except that some of them seem to belong in related groups and have been placed in adjacencies by the archivist. Screening can be arranged with the Librarian. The original identifications found on the boxes have been retained and are repeated below. Some boxes have lists inside. All these boxes are marked Section VII - C.]

The descriptive notes on the plastic containers are in BL's hand as are the descriptions on the borders of most of the slides themselves.  The loose slides have now been deposited in cardboard archive boxes (1 x 2 ½ x 2 ½.  Most have marginal descriptions.
E. Slides in Plastic Boxes 2 x 2 ½ x 2 ½

11. Each container (box) as found contains one or more slides. Their provenance and history are explicated on the outside of the box and on the slide or slides themselves. Some of the slides depict BL works in oils; others depict her sculptured pieces; others relate to live subjects.

F. Slides in small envelopes.

12. These small envelopes contain one or more slides. They fill O.B. 50 - 52 inclusive.

The heavy volume of color prints makes it impracticable to digest them individually. Accordingly, they are assembled chronologically by decade only. Where a package of prints is found with negatives also enclosed, they are kept together undisturbed. Very many of the prints have descriptive comments on reverse sides. Almost all packages of prints indicate that the contents contain pictures of flowers or travel scenes or both. Unpackaged prints will be found to fall into the same two categories, and are filed in similar chronological order.

(ii) A separate white envelope contains strip negatives described on the envelope as "Show July 11, 1997."

SECTION IX : OTHER PHOTOGRAPHY

The photographic material in this Section IX, as distinguished from the snapshots comprising most of the pictures in Section VIII, are the product of, or otherwise related to, BL's professional career. They reflect her work in large part and her criticism of some negatives meant to depict it. Like most other artists, she reached for perfection even in reproduction.
