MISSION: WHY WE EXIST
Art is for everyone. The New Mexico Museum of Art fosters a deeper understanding and enjoyment of art throughout the state and beyond. We work with art and artists to explore the human experience, new ideas, and diverse cultures.

VISION: THE IMPACT WE STRIVE TO HAVE
The New Mexico Museum of Art serves as a catalyst and platform for creativity and the enjoyment of art. We empower people to think critically and see a multiplicity of meanings. We bring the art of the world to New Mexico and the art of New Mexico to the world.

VALUES: CORE PILLARS THAT GUIDE WHAT WE DO

· Welcoming – We believe museums are places for inspiration and enjoyment, a social place that serves a broad audience and actively empowers all visitors to engage with art and cultural experiences on their own terms.

· Inclusive – We will honor a multitude of cultures, places, and identities through exhibitions, collections, programming and outreach, representing multiple narratives and appealing to a diverse audience.

· Inspiring – We draw upon our experimental history to foster critical thought and educational opportunities, originality and creativity, and enjoyment and appreciation of the visual arts.

· Responsible – We recognize our buildings and collections are important parts of the cultural heritage of the State of New Mexico. Our commitment to caring for the museum collection and historic buildings is in alignment with best practices, to ensure their safe keeping for current and future generations.

· Ambitious – We are committed to increasing our resources and developing innovative and ground-breaking strategies to meet the ambitions of our mission and vision and to provide the highest quality experience possible for our audience.

MANDATE: WHAT WE DO

· We continue to build and preserve an ambitious collection of significant art works relevant to New Mexico’s communities and in keeping with Santa Fe’s stature as an international art center;

· We strive to present art that represents the full scope of artistic practice, media, and time periods;
· We connect with artists working and living in the region and foster relationships with the broader creative community;

· We foster economic development in New Mexico by working with local artists and craftspeople and by encouraging cultural tourism, which adds significantly to local and statewide revenue;

· We enhance the quality of life through the growth of knowledge and cultural experiences in New Mexico.

Diversity, Equity, Accessibility & Inclusion:
In recognition of our unique multicultural community, the New Mexico Museum of Art will work to foster diversity, equity, and social knowledge. The Museum of Art will honor a multitude of cultures, places, and identities through exhibitions, collections, programming and outreach, representing multiple narratives and appealing to a diverse audience. We will cultivate a collective dialogue on social issues and intersecting histories. We understand that we must start this process by educating ourselves and will validate our commitments through our actions. We believe art is for everyone.
