Here's how you can access the New Mexico Museum of Art virtually:

The Searchable Art Museum (SAM)
This database provides virtual access to nearly 4,000 items from our collection.
http://sam.nmartmuseum.org/collections

YouTube
Our channel includes over 100 videos, featuring performances, interviews with our curators, and works from the collection.
https://www.youtube.com/user/nmmoa

Blog
Our wonderful Docents create interesting, accessible posts on recent exhibitions, artists, and art history.
http://nmartmuseum.org/education/cypher-space/

SALSA
Access the museum's limited collection of library e-Books and e-Resources, and make sure to check out El Portal, the New Mexico State Library's collection of virtual resources available to everyone in the state.
https://tinyurl.com/salsa-polarislibrary-nmart

Rocky Mountain Online Archive
Take a look at the online guides to the museum's archival collections.
http://nmartmuseum.org/education/archives

MOA History
Visit the About Us page of our website to read and watch videos about our history and the future Vladem Contemporary.
http://nmartmuseum.org/about-us/

Contact Us!
Last but not least, museum staff, including educators, curators, and collections professionals, is happy to answer your questions virtually!
http://nmartmuseum.org/about-us/contact